George L. Mosse Distinguished Graduate Fellowship
LGBT History

Department of History University of Wisconsin–Madison

The George L. Mosse Distinguished Graduate Fellowship in LGBT History is intended to attract and support outstanding Ph.D. candidates who wish to study some aspect of LGBT history in any area of the world.

The fellowship package consists of five years of guaranteed support; a combination of direct fellowship aid, teaching and research assistantship, and writing support.

Application Information:

Candidates for the Mosse LGBT Fellowship should submit an application to the UW–Madison Department of History. The application can be found at: http://history.wisc.edu/graduate/admissions.htm. Please specify that you wish to be considered for the Mosse Fellowship in LGBT History on the Supplemental Information for Fellowships and Teaching Assistantship form.

For more application information:

Contact Jane Williams at jrwillia@wisc.edu, 608-263-1962.

For additional information on the Mosse LGBT Fellowship, contact the following professors:

Anne Enke
aenke@wisc.edu

Nan Enstad
nenstad@wisc.edu

Susan Johnson
sljohnson5@wisc.edu

Lou Roberts
maryroberts@wisc.edu

For more information on the Mosse Program:

Contact John Tortorice at jtortori@wisc.edu, or see mosseprogram.wisc.edu

Application Deadline is December 1.

http://history.wisc.edu

Department of History
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN–MADISON

Graduate Admissions
Department of History
University of Wisconsin–Madison
3211 Mosse Humanities
455 N. Park St.,Madison, WI 53706